

I feel the no call law should be strengthened and penalties increased! Even with the current law in place in Wisconsin, we still get several unsolicited calls a week from telemarketers ignoring the law. If the no-call law is weakened, are we going to be a prisoner in our own homes and have to let answering machines screen all incoming calls to avoid unwanted interruptions? I feel the pushy telemarketing calls are an unreasonable invasion of my privacy and home life.